

Simply Smarter Manufacturing Companies

Optimize operations with the right technology to meet the demands of every shift

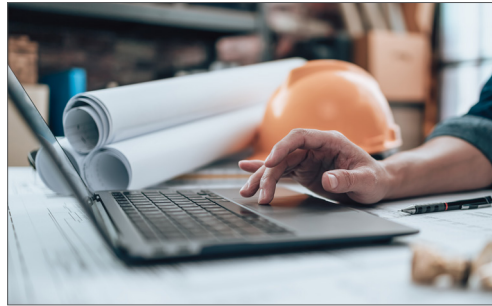

In a manufacturing environment, having the right technology is crucial for smooth operations across all departments. From purchase orders and inventory reports to invoicing and shipping labels, the right solutions can greatly enhance efficiency and impact your bottom line.

Displays and Projectors

From detailed production plans and assembly schedules to engaging digital signage, Sharp helps manufacturers enhance every facet of their operations, including team collaboration, project reviews and client communications.

Laptops and Accessories

Equip your manufacturing team with laptops, monitors and accessories to streamline operations and communication, enabling seamless access to production software and project management tools.

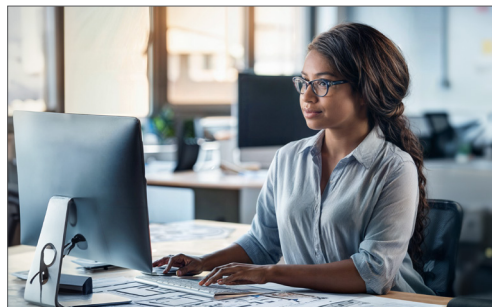

Unified Communications

Leverage a scalable UCaaS solution to help teams connect through Microsoft 365 collaboration tools and which help to deliver a unified platform for voice, chat, video and more.

Copiers and Printers

Print a range of documents such as contracts, shipping labels, work orders and engineering drawings while efficiently managing copy, print and scanning expenses.

Digital Files and Workflows

Digitize manufacturing paperwork and processes, such as purchase orders and distributor files, for secure and efficient access, both on and off site.

IT Services and Support

Leverage remote help desk support for troubleshooting and IT services to help safeguard employee records, distributor data and production invoices.
