

Cooperative Purchasing

Save time and money and streamline the bidding process by leveraging the volume buying power of cooperative contracts. Sharp's Government and Educational Cooperative Contracts provide award-winning technology at negotiated pricing to public and private educational Institutions, city, state, and county governments and non-profit organizations.

We've done the work for you

Cooperative contracts are competitively bid, evaluated and awarded on behalf of the cooperative members. Members can overcome purchasing challenges, including budget constraints and staff reductions, and purchase Sharp products and services at negotiated pricing and terms through a legally vetted contract without the time and work effort associated with going out to bid.

Our Government Procurement Solutions

Below is a list of cooperative contracts which Sharp has been awarded and available to you to leverage via our dealers and branch offices. These contracts include products designed to help your organization streamline document processing and enhance collaboration in the office with Sharp's innovative business products. Use of these contracts may also help your organization control expenses while meeting security, accessibility, environmental and regulatory requirements.
